Want to stock our products in your store?

Then we'd love to hear from you. We accept trade applications from retailers large and small. Once your application has been approved you will have access to our trade prices and be able to order direct from us.

How do I place a wholesale order?

You can easily order from us by completing the trade sign up form. Upon approval we will email you the following: Trade Price List and Purchase Order Form (this is the trade order form). Please return your completed forms by email (clear mobile phone images are acceptable) to info@claireelsworthdesign.com.

Buying wholesale products direct from Claire Elsworth Design means:

You are supporting a small independent UK business that sustainably manufactures in the UK. That in turn helps to reduce our carbon footprint and boost the UK economy, providing jobs and supporting families. We are woman owned and female founded by award winning UK designer Claire Elsworth. Buying direct means no middle man commission fees (for either of us).

We love to work with interior designers.

If you are an Interior Designer or an interior design related business who wants to stock our wallpapers and fabrics ranges, you are invited to become an authorised book holder by purchasing our wallpaper and fabric books. This will enable you to showcase our wallpaper and fabric ranges within your design studio/retail establishment. It also gives you the ability to order in wallpaper rolls and fabrics for your client projects as and when required.

Bespoke

Need a design in a bespoke colour way, scale or printed on a different substrate? Get in touch to discuss your requirements by emailing info@claireelsworthdesign.com

Buying through a wholesale platform may be of interest to stores who are getting back on their feet after the lockdowns, setting up shop or wanting to easily source a range of quality products from independent brands all in one place.

It is the retailers responsibility to familiarise themselves with the wholesale marketplaces policies. Orders made through wholesale platform partners are completely separate to this website and any orders placed directly with Claire Elsworth Design.
